Since winning first prize at the German Choir Competition in 2006, VoicesInTime is to the most sought after acappella choir in Germany. With their musical director, Stefan Kalmer, VoicesInTime has developed a unique profile and has become an important player in Europe.

Originating from well-known songs played on the radio, the audience will recognize an exceptional arrangement of music that remind them of the known, but create the unheard. Encounters with German artists such as, Ina Müller, Roger Cicero, Ella Fitzgerald, George Gershwin, as well as Jamie Cullum provide unforgettable listening experiences. Crossover-compositions based on Eichendorff, Mendelssohn or Shakespeare leave lasting impressions.

The new live-CD "a kiss & a smile" (2012)

The blend of styles, the stage presence, the discreet choreographies and the tailor-made arrangements make every VoicesInTime concert a unique event.

Stefan Kalmer (born in Eggenfelden, Germany, 1955) studied music at the University of Music and Performing Arts Munich, where he taught popular music education and presently teaches ensemble singing and leads the University's jazz choir.

He works as a music teacher while playing the violin in various jazz and rock bands. Kalmer was a member of via-nova-chorus Munich and is the initiator and conductor of the rock and jazz choir, VoicesInTime.

He frequently lectures in workshops on rock, jazz and crossover and works as a juror in choral singing. Kalmer also arranges, composes and edits choral music (www.kalmer.de).
